2016 Conference Agenda

3:00pm – 4:15pm

Tour of the Kohl Center and LaBahn Arena

The Kohl Center, opened in 1998, is the home for the UW men's, and women's basketball teams, and the men's hockey teams. The Kohl Center seats 17,230 for men's basketball, which includes courtside seating, and 17,142 for women's basketball. These figures include approximately 7,500 seats in the lower seating bowl and 4,500 in each of the two balconies. The unique design of the Kohl Center (with two overhanging balconies) guarantees that all fans will be close to the playing floor with excellent sight lines. The facility seats 15,237 for hockey, and between 15,000 and 17,000 for concerts.

4:30pm – 5:45pm

Tour of Camp Randall Stadium and McClain Center

Distinguished by its impressive double-deck structure, Camp Randall Stadium has been the Badgers' facility since its opening game on Nov. 3, 1917. It has been host to UW football games, outdoor concerts, Drum Corps International, Green Bay Packer exhibition games, and other large public events. Besides the field, the historic Camp Randall Stadium complex houses the athletic department offices in Kellner Hall, the Athletic Operations Building, a team training table, lounges, the Fetzer Center study area for student-athletes, as well as film, training and weight rooms and a display of football memorabilia in the new football offices located in the eastside superstructure. The stadium is the centerpiece of Wisconsin's athletic complex. Located on the same block on the west side of campus are the Dave McClain Athletic Facility, the state-of-the-art indoor practice building, the Camp Randall Memorial Recreation Center (Shell), and the Wisconsin Field House.

5:45pm – 7:30pm

Travel to Porter Boat House for Dinner and Open Tours

Located along the south shore of Lake Mendota, one of four Madison-area lakes, Porter Boathouse gives the University of Wisconsin rowing programs an unrivaled home in the world of collegiate rowing. Completed in 2005, the spacious on-campus facility provides room for the women's open weight and lightweight programs, as well as the men's program.

At water level, the boathouse includes five storage bays that fit more than 100 boats, along with a sixth repair bay. On the ground level of the boathouse, which includes the main entrance at the end of Babcock Drive, the main operations of the rowing programs take place. The floor includes coach's offices and team locker rooms. It also includes a community meeting room, catering kitchen and the moving water rowing tanks. Finally, on the top floor, each of the three Wisconsin rowing programs has its own training room. The rooms are separated by glass walls that can be opened up to create one huge room for training or special events.

Travel back to Woodside Ranch
